

Domain and intelligence for sale:

Upon full receipt of the purchase price of €1,000,000 (one million Euros) for the domain <https://aethyr-global.com>, the seller agrees to transfer to the buyer the following assets and rights:

1. Domain Ownership – Full registrant rights and control over the domain `aethyr-global.com`, including the ability to transfer it to any registrar of the buyer's choice.
2. All Associated Data – Complete, unaltered copies of all databases, user data, analytics, logs, content, backups, configuration files, and any other digital data stored under or related to the domain.
3. Exclusive Rights to All Data – The buyer shall acquire sole and exclusive ownership rights to all data described above. The seller waives any and all claims, access privileges, or usage rights to said data after transfer. No copies shall be retained by the seller or any third party.
4. One Physical Blockchain Server – Delivery of one (1) dedicated, pre-configured physical blockchain server (specifications available upon request) that currently hosts or has hosted ledger/transaction data related to the domain's operation. Title and possession of the server hardware pass to the buyer upon payment.
5. All Passwords & Credentials – Complete disclosure of all passwords, API keys, authentication tokens, administrative login credentials, SSH keys, database passwords, and any other access codes required to fully control, manage, and retrieve data from the domain, its hosting environment, the blockchain server, and any connected services.

This transfer constitutes a full, irrevocable assignment of all digital and physical assets described above. The seller shall provide reasonable technical assistance to facilitate the buyer's takeover within 7 business days after payment confirmation.
